Led by the indestructible L.U.C., the Rebel Babel Ensemble bridges cultures and makes dreams come true. The live version of the album "Dialogue 1" was transformed into a speeding multicultural vehicle, with more than eleven thousand (!) musicians from sixteen countries embarking on a festival journey across Europe and the USA.

The continuation of this epic concept, Dialogue 2, mixes genres and disregards styles, celebrates the idea of peace, dialogue and cultural diversity with similar eagerness.

The stage is a circus tent now, and the leading sensation is dancing eyes (and ears!). L.U.C. combines music from the retro jukebox with electronica, rap, folk, jazz and images generated by artificial intelligence (welcome to the world of postmodernism on steroids).

Lyrics describe different points of view on the problems of the contemporary world. As we all know, the world constantly needs a diagnosis, a cure and... some irreverence.

So: performers and acrobats, jaw-dropping stunts and parade trumpets. A cross-national, cross-generational and cross-genre gathering in an unlimited orchestra of languages.
